

Reader's Constructed Response

Your task:

Once a week on Wednesday, you will receive a current event article to read and write a constructed response paragraph in reaction to a prompt. You will be given 15-20 minutes to read and respond to the article before discussing as a class your writing.

Paragraph Structure:

Topic Sentence - Restate the question and provide an answer.

Textual Evidence - Copy a passage directly from the article.

Support - Explain how the text supports your answer.

Conclusion - Restate your answer and close.

Grading:

Your RCR Journals will be graded at the time of your Daybook Checks, but will count as a separate quiz grade.

This assignment will assist in your preparation for the English 1 MSL, as you will be expected to provide constructed responses to 4 different texts on this test. Please take this assignment seriously and put forth your best effort.
